You have students who never settle—not in the classroom, on the field, or in their communities. These well-rounded seniors reach higher in every aspect of school and life. Then they give a little more. Now is your chance to give something back by making sure these students get the local, regional and national recognition they deserve. Encourage your best and brightest to apply for the Wendy's High School Heisman award by October 3, 2014. They'll get a chance to be honored at the Heisman Trophy ceremony in New York City. And your school could win, too, with up to $10,000 awarded in donations.
