

CELEBRATING HIGH
ACHIEVING MINORITY
STUDENTS IN ALABAMA

*Auburn, Alabama
Thursday,
October 24th at
5:00 pm in the Auburn Arena*

Ag Elite

The “Ag Elite” program is an on campus reception to celebrate the academic achievements of talented minority high school students with interest in science, including agricultural and environmental science. The College of Agriculture at Auburn University is proud to recognize these outstanding students and showcase the many career opportunities within the food, agricultural and natural resources fields.

The program will include a departmental browse, alumni and student speakers, dinner with faculty representatives, scholarship information, and a recipient will be selected for a $1000 scholarship award.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Amanda L. Martin
College of Agriculture
103 Comer Hall
Auburn, AL 36849
Phone: 334-844-8900
Fax: 334-844-2937
E-mail: amanda.martin@auburn.edu

Space is limited and students are encouraged to apply early—the deadline is October 4, 2013. Students may bring up to two guests and the event’s attire is business casual. To apply to attend the program, please complete the application at: www.ag.auburn.edu/go/370

Once a student applies, they will receive a personal phone call and an official invitation to the program if they are accepted.

