Personalized Subject Tutoring

One-On-One

George and Laura both offer students the opportunity to precisely determine their individual developmental areas and coach students to reach their full potential. Each student is different, but we generally recommend tutoring after attending one of our classes. This approach makes the time more effective since students will have already been through the full course and will know which areas they need to strengthen.

We also tutor students by Skype® or FaceTime®.

Contact our office for more information. You can access our calendar of available time slots online.

Laura offers an English/Reading Workshop prior to each test and you can check online for more details.
