Our Mission

is to cultivate student's creative, performance and scholarly aptitude through exposure to diverse practical and philosophical approaches to dance studies through various dance forms while developing and nurturing their technical proficiency.

Our Vision

is to produce high caliber, diverse and technically proficient dance artists who contribute to the field of dance on local, regional, national and global stages. Our quest is to empower students to become productive scholars, creative artists, working as collaborative individuals. Our students will confidently take their place in the world by understanding the African diaspora on the world of dance.
