Tuition based on in-state traditional classroom hours.

Additional Information

The JSU Office of Student Financial Services contacts you regarding your financial aid through your JSU GEM Email account and messages posted on your active messages page on MyJSU. Please check both systems regularly for up to date information.

Students may qualify for more than one institutionally funded award. Under no circumstances will multiple institutional awards result in a cash payment to the student. All tuition scholarships are at the in-state rate. Full tuition is up to 16 hours per semester and each hour is computed at the traditional classroom tuition rate. University housing is valued at the Double Occupancy Housing rate. Meal plans are valued at the On-Campus Resident rate and are available at the Jack Hopper Dining Hall.

Exceptional Value

More than seventy-nine percent of JSU students receive some form of financial aid. More than $90 million was awarded last year in scholarships, loans, grants, or campus employment. Our Student Financial Services staff is always ready to serve you and answer all of your questions. Students must be accepted to JSU before they can be awarded financial aid scholarships. The JSU Office of Student Financial Services contacts you regarding your financial aid through your JSU GEM Email account and messages posted on your active messages page on MyJSU. Please check both systems regularly for up to date information.

Priority deadline for Federal Aid is March 15, 2014

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (www.fafsa.gov) contains questions pertaining to the student's assets, income, college hours earned, etc. Students who are dependent on their parents, based on Federal Student Aid guidelines, must also submit information concerning parental income, assets, and other items. Financial aid filing and processing information can be found at www.jsu.edu/finaid. If you list the JSU Title IV school code (001020), the federal processor will send your processed student aid report to JSU.

Types of Aid

Grants

Grants are gifts based on need and do not have to be repaid.

Loans

JSU participates in the Federal Direct Loan Program. There are three types of Federal Direct Student Loans: Subsidized, Unsubsidized and Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS).

Campus Employment

Many students work part-time while attending college without sacrifice to their grades. By working, students are able to contribute to their educational expenses and at the same time gain valuable experience. Visit www.jsu.edu/finaid for more details.

Veterans' Benefits (and/or dependents)

Contact the Office of Veterans Affairs for eligibility and requirements, veteransaffairs@jsu.edu.

Pact

PACT is a state program through which contracts are purchased to pay for undergraduate tuition and qualified fees. A copy of the PACT Eligibility Letter must be provided to the JSU Scholarship Office during the enrollment period, Fax (256) 782-8132. The Alabama PACT administrator can be contacted at 1-800-ALA-PACT (252-7228).
