Synced Senior Scholarship 2019

We believe there is a success story in all of us.

Scholarship Rules

1. To be eligible to receive the scholarship awarded, recipient must be a high school senior with a minimum 2.0 Grade Point Average (on a 4.0 scale), be a Synced member of ATCU in good standing, and accepted at an accredited college, university, or seminary of higher education that awards associate or baccalaureate degrees. Scholarships will not be awarded for graduate school or trade school. Account must be opened for at least six (6) months prior to application.
2. Applicants must complete the Scholarship Application and attach a current official high school transcript, one (1) letter of recommendation from a non-relative, a one-page essay describing why education matters to their community, and proof of acceptance at an accredited college, university or seminary. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
3. Employees, Board and committee members and their immediate family members (spouse, siblings, children, or grandchildren) are not eligible.
4. Scholarship award payments will be made for the fall semester or quarter immediately following award of the scholarship and cannot be claimed on a later date. No scholarship funds will be released directly to students. ATCU has no control over funds once released.
5. Awards will be made payable to the accredited college, university or seminary of higher education only (not to any third party, including the scholarship recipient), as first designated by the award recipient. Once scholarship funds are sent to the college, university, or seminary designated by the award recipient, Alabama Teachers Credit Union cannot direct those funds to another college, university, or seminary. Award, when combined with other scholarship funds from other sources, shall not exceed 100% of the cost of tuition, fees, and required textbooks.
6. Award recipient is solely responsible for providing Alabama Teachers Credit Union with appropriate information necessary to process the award and credit the recipient's account at the appropriate financial aid office. Recipients may be required to verify enrollment other information, as directed.
7. If recipient withdraws from enrollment during the course of a term, recipient may be required to reimburse Alabama Teachers Credit Union for unused awards.
8. Awards will only be applied toward courses the student has not yet attended. Awards will not be applied to past due balances.
9. Awards are not assignable or transferable and there shall be no changes or substitutions.
10. Award recipients are fully responsible for all applicable federal, state, and local taxes and fees.
11. This award may affect the amount of other financial aid for which a recipient may qualify, or the award may be reduced or nullified by other educational assistance and aid the recipient receives.
12. All interpretations of these Rules by Alabama Teachers Credit Union shall be final. By participating and redeeming the award, the recipient agrees to these Rules and releases Alabama Teachers Credit Union and its directors, officers, employees and agents from any and all liability with respect to the award. The recipient agrees to the use of his/her name, photograph, and/or biographical information for advertising or publicity purposes, without further compensation.

Alabama Teachers Credit Union will send notice to the winner(s) and a check will be sent to the financial aid office of the college, university, or seminary attended by the recipient. No funds will be released directly to the recipient. Essays will be judged by a Scholarship Committee to be determined by the Credit Union. In the event of a tie, GPA's may be used to determine the winner. Scholarship Committee decisions are final. Employees, Board and committee members of ATCU and their family members are not eligible. Must meet membership requirements. *Good standing is defined as having a positive account balance and loans paid up-to-date, no charged off accounts. Insured by NCUA.
